Office of Independent Review

The Office of Independent Review (OIR) serves as an independent resource for the Board of Supervisors (Board) that works to secure the transparency and accountability of five county agencies, including the Orange County Sheriff's Department, Probation Department, Office of the District Attorney, Office of the Public Defender, and the Social Services Agency. The OIR does this by identifying specific incidents and systemic issues that indicate high risk and potential liability for the County. We review all complaints sent to the OIR to determine whether the issue falls within our mandate. If you have a complaint dealing with the agencies listed above, you may submit this form to the OIR and we will review it, and if applicable we will contact you.
